

FAQ

1-What are the areas of intervention?

Area of interventions are not defined yet.

A population of 5000 inhabitants per area can be taken as a non-official reference while an average of 100 members per cooperative can be considered but not taken as a real reference number.

2- Is it possible to do Quantitative research?

As far as the consultant is able to respond to the requested objectives and outcomes of the gender analysis, they are free to submit any methodology considered valuable to the scope of work.

3-Can you provide us with the budget for this study?

No

4-Can offers be sent via email?

No. If the firm is outside Lebanon, the envelopes should be sent by post to Lebanon.

5- Are Research firms eligible to apply?

Yes, the evaluation committee will consider the level of experience in relation to the specific subject of the analysis.

6- Can firms outside Lebanon apply?

Consulting firm not based in Lebanon can participate in the tender, ensuring that the survey is not conducted from distance but in the 4 specific target territories. All costs of the study implementation, including eventually flights, VISA, accommodation must be included in the total cost of the survey.