

TOR-Sewing trainer

Sewing trainer will be responsible for initiating the teaching and learning process with a focus on continuous improvement: creating an environment in which participants can accomplish the learning competencies of the course in addition to delivering the curriculum based on their needs assessment

Requirements

- Provide instruction and demonstration, based on needs, of basic stitching, use of basic patterns for bags, cushion covers and clothing items, means for mending damaged clothing and other alterations, basic machine use, and basic machine maintenance
- Develop lesson plans and organizes classes so that demonstration, instruction, and practice can be completed during the grant period
- Regularly assess progress and adapt curriculum to best suit the needs and capabilities of the attendee body
- Prepare PowerPoint presentations, and display materials to enhance learning if possible
- Maintain a record of attendee attendance and provide reports
- Evaluate each attendee performance, knowledge, and skills in the respective course being taught; conduct regular assessments and prepare progress reports
- Participate in team meetings to help improve learning quality for attendees and to support them with various activities
- Perform other duties as many, from time to time be assigned by the supervisor
- Provide basic market skills trainings and information about potential market linkage

Education and computer skills:

- High school diploma or GED.
- Proven experience working as a tailor.
- Sound knowledge of fabrics as well as clothing design and construction.
- The ability to use a sewing machine.
- Excellent organizational, problem-solving, and time management skills.
- Outstanding sewing skills.
- Effective communication skills.

More information:

- Starting Date: First week of August
- Trainer should provision 24 sewing sessions (1.5 to 2 hours per session) for two months
- Shelter location: Cedar Rayfoun

