2. Background on the organization and the project

Right to Play (RTP) is a global organization committed to improving the lives of children and youth affected by conflict, disease, and poverty. Established in 2000, Right to Play has pioneered unique play-based approach to learning and development which focuses on quality education, life skills, health, gender equality, child protection and building peaceful communities.

“Music for Social Change” aims to give full agency for youth and adolescents for them to be leading change in their communities instead of being beneficiaries and receiving services. Mobilized youth (13-18 yrs) will lead a 1-day final event through which they will display their work under the music program. The main outcomes of the final event:

- Release the upcycled interactive music play-space.
- Release of video clips.
- Live music tech station
